

The Sydney Morning Herald.

N. 5284.—VOL. XXXV.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 3, 1854.

PRICE, THREEPENCE.

SHIP ADVERTISEMENTS.

TEAM TO PORT STEPHENS. Touching at NEWCASTLE, 1st May, and will leave the Hunter Agricultural Company's Wharf, or the above port, at 4 p.m. Wednesday, 3rd instant.

For freight or freight on board, apply to NEWCASTLE, JOHN H. LEITCH, Charlotte-place, Church-street; Captain SPARKES, 308, George-street; or to the commander on board.

Passenger and freight will be landed at Carrington, from the steamer, free of charge.

TEAM TO MORETON BAY.—The new powerful steamship MANCHESTER, T. D. HARRISON, commander, will be despatched seven days after her arrival from Britain.

For freight or passage apply to CHURCH and MOLISON, Macquarie-place; or to WILLIS, MERRY, and CO., Bott's Wharf, May 2.

AUSTRALASIAN STEAM NAVIGATION COMPANY.—The A. S. N. Co.'s beautiful steamship EAGLE is now open for engagement in our vessels in the harbour to touch at the Office of Michael, Metal, Green, and Company, Agent; and any communication left at either place will receive notice thereof the previous day.

The steamer will proceed down the Harbour every morning at six o'clock, except Saturday, for the purpose of being cleared of freight or passage apply at once on board, or to ANDREW WILSON, 474, George-street.

FIRST VESSEL FOR MELBOURNE WHARF.—Without delay, or other expense, the fine screw vessel VANGUARD, F. SCOTT, Commander, having the greater portion of her cargo ready to go on board, has room only for a few tons of light freight or mail.

For freight or passage apply to HARRIS and BARLOW, Keppel's Wharf.

MELBOURNE direct. The Al clipper brigantine THE CRAWLEY, 127 tons register, WM. J. HANLEY, master, and sailing rapidly, will call on board the Flora Company's Wharf, and sail on Wednesday morning.

For freight or passage apply at once on board, or to ANDREW WILSON, 474, George-street.

STEAM TO MORETON BAY.—The new powerful paddle steamer MANCHESTER, T. D. HARRISON, commander, will be despatched seven days after her arrival from Britain.

For freight or passage apply to CHURCH and MOLISON, Macquarie-place; or to WILLIS, MERRY, and CO., Bott's Wharf, May 2.

THE AL CLIPPER EAGLE.—The A. S. N. Co.'s beautiful steamship EAGLE is now open for engagement in our vessels in the harbour to touch at the Office of Michael, Metal, Green, and Company, Agent; and any communication left at either place will receive notice thereof the previous day.

The steamer will proceed down the Harbour every morning at six o'clock, except Saturday, for the purpose of being cleared of freight or passage apply at once on board, or to ANDREW WILSON, 474, George-street.

FREDERICK TERRY, Assistant Manager.—A. S. N. Co.'s Wharf, May 2.

STEAM TO THE HUNTER.—THE THISTLE, D. MORRIS, This Evening, at 10 p.m., FREDERICK TERRY, Assistant Manager.

A. S. N. Co.'s Wharf, May 2.

STEAM TO MELBOURNE.—For Passengers only.

Sold Cabins, 27 10s.; Fore Cabin, 3 0.

Inclusive of provisions, tax, and fees.

The A. S. N. Co.'s New Zealand CITY OF SYDNEY, R. H. MOODIE, Commander, will be despatched as soon as possible.

The steamer will proceed down the Harbour every morning at six o'clock, except Saturday, for the purpose of being cleared of freight or passage apply at once on board, or to ANDREW WILSON, 474, George-street.

FREDERICK TERRY, Assistant Manager.—A. S. N. Co.'s Wharf, May 2.

STEAM TO MELBOURNE.—For Passengers only.

Sold Cabins, 27 10s.; Fore Cabin, 3 0.

Inclusive of provisions, tax, and fees.

The A. S. N. Co.'s Iron Steamship CITY OF SYDNEY, R. H. MOODIE, Commander, will be despatched as soon as possible.

The steamer will proceed down the Harbour every morning at six o'clock, except Saturday, for the purpose of being cleared of freight or passage apply at once on board, or to ANDREW WILSON, 474, George-street.

STEAM TO MELBOURNE.—For Passengers only.

Sold Cabins, 27 10s.; Fore Cabin, 3 0.

Inclusive of provisions, tax, and fees.

The A. S. N. Co.'s Iron Steamship CITY OF SYDNEY, R. H. MOODIE, Commander, will be despatched as soon as possible.

The steamer will proceed down the Harbour every morning at six o'clock, except Saturday, for the purpose of being cleared of freight or passage apply at once on board, or to ANDREW WILSON, 474, George-street.

STEAM TO MELBOURNE.—For Passengers only.

Sold Cabins, 27 10s.; Fore Cabin, 3 0.

Inclusive of provisions, tax, and fees.

The A. S. N. Co.'s Iron Steamship CITY OF SYDNEY, R. H. MOODIE, Commander, will be despatched as soon as possible.

The steamer will proceed down the Harbour every morning at six o'clock, except Saturday, for the purpose of being cleared of freight or passage apply at once on board, or to ANDREW WILSON, 474, George-street.

STEAM TO MELBOURNE.—For Passengers only.

Sold Cabins, 27 10s.; Fore Cabin, 3 0.

Inclusive of provisions, tax, and fees.

The A. S. N. Co.'s Iron Steamship CITY OF SYDNEY, R. H. MOODIE, Commander, will be despatched as soon as possible.

The steamer will proceed down the Harbour every morning at six o'clock, except Saturday, for the purpose of being cleared of freight or passage apply at once on board, or to ANDREW WILSON, 474, George-street.

STEAM TO MELBOURNE.—For Passengers only.

Sold Cabins, 27 10s.; Fore Cabin, 3 0.

Inclusive of provisions, tax, and fees.

The A. S. N. Co.'s Iron Steamship CITY OF SYDNEY, R. H. MOODIE, Commander, will be despatched as soon as possible.

The steamer will proceed down the Harbour every morning at six o'clock, except Saturday, for the purpose of being cleared of freight or passage apply at once on board, or to ANDREW WILSON, 474, George-street.

STEAM TO MELBOURNE.—For Passengers only.

Sold Cabins, 27 10s.; Fore Cabin, 3 0.

Inclusive of provisions, tax, and fees.

The A. S. N. Co.'s Iron Steamship CITY OF SYDNEY, R. H. MOODIE, Commander, will be despatched as soon as possible.

The steamer will proceed down the Harbour every morning at six o'clock, except Saturday, for the purpose of being cleared of freight or passage apply at once on board, or to ANDREW WILSON, 474, George-street.

STEAM TO MELBOURNE.—For Passengers only.

Sold Cabins, 27 10s.; Fore Cabin, 3 0.

Inclusive of provisions, tax, and fees.

The A. S. N. Co.'s Iron Steamship CITY OF SYDNEY, R. H. MOODIE, Commander, will be despatched as soon as possible.

The steamer will proceed down the Harbour every morning at six o'clock, except Saturday, for the purpose of being cleared of freight or passage apply at once on board, or to ANDREW WILSON, 474, George-street.

STEAM TO MELBOURNE.—For Passengers only.

Sold Cabins, 27 10s.; Fore Cabin, 3 0.

Inclusive of provisions, tax, and fees.

The A. S. N. Co.'s Iron Steamship CITY OF SYDNEY, R. H. MOODIE, Commander, will be despatched as soon as possible.

The steamer will proceed down the Harbour every morning at six o'clock, except Saturday, for the purpose of being cleared of freight or passage apply at once on board, or to ANDREW WILSON, 474, George-street.

STEAM TO MELBOURNE.—For Passengers only.

Sold Cabins, 27 10s.; Fore Cabin, 3 0.

Inclusive of provisions, tax, and fees.

The A. S. N. Co.'s Iron Steamship CITY OF SYDNEY, R. H. MOODIE, Commander, will be despatched as soon as possible.

The steamer will proceed down the Harbour every morning at six o'clock, except Saturday, for the purpose of being cleared of freight or passage apply at once on board, or to ANDREW WILSON, 474, George-street.

STEAM TO MELBOURNE.—For Passengers only.

Sold Cabins, 27 10s.; Fore Cabin, 3 0.

Inclusive of provisions, tax, and fees.

The A. S. N. Co.'s Iron Steamship CITY OF SYDNEY, R. H. MOODIE, Commander, will be despatched as soon as possible.

The steamer will proceed down the Harbour every morning at six o'clock, except Saturday, for the purpose of being cleared of freight or passage apply at once on board, or to ANDREW WILSON, 474, George-street.

STEAM TO MELBOURNE.—For Passengers only.

Sold Cabins, 27 10s.; Fore Cabin, 3 0.

Inclusive of provisions, tax, and fees.

The A. S. N. Co.'s Iron Steamship CITY OF SYDNEY, R. H. MOODIE, Commander, will be despatched as soon as possible.

The steamer will proceed down the Harbour every morning at six o'clock, except Saturday, for the purpose of being cleared of freight or passage apply at once on board, or to ANDREW WILSON, 474, George-street.

STEAM TO MELBOURNE.—For Passengers only.

Sold Cabins, 27 10s.; Fore Cabin, 3 0.

Inclusive of provisions, tax, and fees.

The A. S. N. Co.'s Iron Steamship CITY OF SYDNEY, R. H. MOODIE, Commander, will be despatched as soon as possible.

The steamer will proceed down the Harbour every morning at six o'clock, except Saturday, for the purpose of being cleared of freight or passage apply at once on board, or to ANDREW WILSON, 474, George-street.

STEAM TO MELBOURNE.—For Passengers only.

Sold Cabins, 27 10s.; Fore Cabin, 3 0.

Inclusive of provisions, tax, and fees.

The A. S. N. Co.'s Iron Steamship CITY OF SYDNEY, R. H. MOODIE, Commander, will be despatched as soon as possible.

The steamer will proceed down the Harbour every morning at six o'clock, except Saturday, for the purpose of being cleared of freight or passage apply at once on board, or to ANDREW WILSON, 474, George-street.

STEAM TO MELBOURNE.—For Passengers only.

Sold Cabins, 27 10s.; Fore Cabin, 3 0.

Inclusive of provisions, tax, and fees.

The A. S. N. Co.'s Iron Steamship CITY OF SYDNEY, R. H. MOODIE, Commander, will be despatched as soon as possible.

The steamer will proceed down the Harbour every morning at six o'clock, except Saturday, for the purpose of being cleared of freight or passage apply at once on board, or to ANDREW WILSON, 474, George-street.

STEAM TO MELBOURNE.—For Passengers only.

Sold Cabins, 27 10s.; Fore Cabin, 3 0.

Inclusive of provisions, tax, and fees.

The A. S. N. Co.'s Iron Steamship CITY OF SYDNEY, R. H. MOODIE, Commander, will be despatched as soon as possible.

The steamer will proceed down the Harbour every morning at six o'clock, except Saturday, for the purpose of being cleared of freight or passage apply at once on board, or to ANDREW WILSON, 474, George-street.

STEAM TO MELBOURNE.—For Passengers only.

Sold Cabins, 27 10s.; Fore Cabin, 3 0.

Inclusive of provisions, tax, and fees.

The A. S. N. Co.'s Iron Steamship CITY OF SYDNEY, R. H. MOODIE, Commander, will be despatched as soon as possible.

The steamer will proceed down the Harbour every morning at six o'clock, except Saturday, for the purpose of being cleared of freight or passage apply at once on board, or to ANDREW WILSON, 474, George-street.

STEAM TO MELBOURNE.—For Passengers only.

Sold Cabins, 27 10s.; Fore Cabin, 3 0.

Inclusive of provisions, tax, and fees.

The A. S. N. Co.'s Iron Steamship CITY OF SYDNEY, R. H. MOODIE, Commander, will be despatched as soon as possible.

The steamer will proceed down the Harbour every morning at six o'clock, except Saturday, for the purpose of being cleared of freight or passage apply at once on board, or to ANDREW WILSON, 474, George-street.

STEAM TO MELBOURNE.—For Passengers only.

Sold Cabins, 27 10s.; Fore Cabin, 3 0.

Inclusive of provisions, tax, and fees.

The A. S. N. Co.'s Iron Steamship CITY OF SYDNEY, R. H. MOODIE, Commander, will be despatched as soon as possible.

The steamer will proceed down the Harbour every morning at six o'clock, except Saturday, for the purpose of being cleared of freight or passage apply at once on board, or to ANDREW WILSON, 474, George-street.

STEAM TO MELBOURNE.—For Passengers only.

Sold Cabins, 27 10s.; Fore Cabin, 3 0.

Inclusive of provisions, tax, and fees.

The A. S. N. Co.'s Iron Steamship CITY OF SYDNEY, R. H. MOODIE, Commander, will be despatched as soon as possible.

The steamer will proceed down the Harbour every morning at six o'clock, except Saturday, for the purpose of being cleared of freight or passage apply at once on board, or to ANDREW WILSON, 474, George-street.

STEAM TO MELBOURNE.—For Passengers only.

Sold Cabins, 27 10s.; Fore Cabin, 3 0.

Inclusive of provisions, tax, and fees.

The A. S. N. Co.'s Iron Steamship CITY OF SYDNEY, R. H. MOODIE,

INSOLVENT COURT.

TUESDAY.

Before the Chief Commissioner.

In the estate of Thomas Brett, an adjourned second meeting. One debt, for £153 2s. 5d., was proved, insolvent was examined, and the meeting terminated.

WATER POLICE COURT.

MONDAY.

Before the Water Police Magistrate.

Joseph Lewis, the chief officer of the George Metcalfe, was charged with disobedience of lawful commands. The prisoner pleaded in defence that he had been called to duty out of his turn, the previous watch not having expired before he was called upon deck. As it appeared, however, that the entry of the offence in the log book had been read to the prisoner as required by the statute, his Worship had no alternative but to dismiss the case.

Six of the Danish seamen belonging to the Jeremiah Garnett, who were discharged on Saturday last in consequence of the entry in the log book not having been reported to them, were brought up for refusing duty after they returned to the ship on Saturday, and the offence being admitted, were sentenced to four weeks' hard labour in Darlinghurst gaol.

Three drunkards were fined, two in 20s. each, or forty-eight hours' imprisonment, and one in 10s., or twenty-four hours to the cells.

George Hoaly was given in charge by Luke Ryan, of Campbell-street, publican, for insulting his wife. It appeared the insult consisted of calling Mrs. Ryan "an old trollop," on Tuesday evening last, after some dispute about the price of a glass of ale. Hoaly was admonished and discharged.

TUESDAY.

Before the Water Police Magistrate.

There were one or two drunkards on the list, who were disposed of in the usual way.

A seaman belonging to the Scots was charged with damaging the clothes of Michael Mansing, one of the members of the Water Police Force, and having pleaded guilty, was sentenced to pay a fine of 5s., in addition to £1 5s., the value of the damage, and 4s. 6d. Court costs.

There were no other cases on the list worthy of notice.

CENTRAL POLICE OFFICE.

MONDAY.

Before the Police Magistrate.

The twenty-four persons charged with drunkenness, all of them 40s. in lieu of half pay, appeared before the Court to plead guilty, in the evident expectation of getting back a moiety, and was not a little taken aback at receiving a sentence which involved the whole amount. The remainder, on conviction, were sentenced in the usual penalty of 20s.

Amelia Beard, a well known frequenter of the Court, from Clarence-street, was convicted of being a disorderly person and was sentenced to two months' imprisonment with hard labour; James Murphy, under the same category, but not so troublesome, received sentence of fourteen days' imprisonment with hard labour.

The free list contained thirty-eight charges, eleven of which were dismissed, and three were remanded. Nearly the whole of the remainder were for offensive language or disorderly conduct while under the influence of drink, and were punished by sentences varying from 10s. to 20s. penalty, from three to six days' imprisonment.

Timothy Kelly was charged with larceny. Constable McNamee deposed that about mid-day on Saturday he took prisoner into custody on the Racecourse, in consequence of information that he had stolen a bundle containing wearing apparel, which was then in his possession. Miss Moore deposed that she saw the prisoner and a female on the Racecourse, and as she passed, she heard them cavilling about a bundle the prisoner had, while the woman, who was drunk, charged him with stealing from her; she met a constable, and told him what she had seen and heard. Miss Wilson, a married woman, her husband being at the diggings, deposed that the bundle produced contained wearing apparel belonging to herself; she did not know the prisoner, nor how he got possession of the bundle; valued it at three shillings; she was intoxicated on Saturday, and on coming to herself found that she was in custody. The prisoner was summoned, and kept to hard labour for one month; and the prosecutor had to pay the usual 20s. penalty for drunkenness.

Arthur Lowry was convicted of an act of indecency in York-street, and sent to gaol under the Vagrant Act for fourteen days.

John Gilmore was charged with having, in York-street, on Saturday evening, made use of obscene language. The offence was proved by Sergeant Harwick, who took him into custody. The sergeant also charged him with having committed an assault upon him while giving him into the charge of the watch-house keeper. For the first offence Gilmore was sentenced to pay 10s., or be imprisoned for three days; and for the second, to pay 20s. with 2s. 6d. costs, or to be further imprisoned for three days.

Alfred Wright was charged with stabbing one William Doherty, King's Cross, on Friday last. The facts of the outrage, notably, were set out in yesterday's Herald. Mr. Nutt, of Newcastle, surgeon, deposed that he was called in to attend Doherty, who was suffering from several wounds on the scalp, the nose, the shoulder, and the side. On the shoulder, the whole skin was cut, and he was not quite sure that the joint itself was not penetrated; such a knife as this produced one found on the prisoner) would inflict such wounds; they are dangerous wounds. Wright was tried at the Criminal Court, to be held for trial.

Christopher Lawler was charged with street robbery. Mr. Hazlett, of Sussex-street, deposed that in King-street on Saturday night he saw the prisoner give a jerk at something, and immediately afterwards heard that a gentleman had been robbed of his watch; prisoner ran away, followed by witness, who overtook and after a struggle secured him until the arrival of Constable Burke, who then took him in charge; next when he came up with the prisoner a watch was stolen from him. Mr. Omond Mathews identified the watch as his property; he valued it at £5; it was snatched from his pocket in King-street on Saturday night, but he could not tell whom. Prisoner had nothing to say. Committed for trial.

John Shea was charged, under the Vagrant Act, as a idle and disorderly person. He was found, by Constable Mortimer, between two and three o'clock on Sunday morning, lying among some wool in a shed on Circular Quay. He was a labourer, and earned 6s. or 7s. a day. He was sent to hard labour at the gaol for seven days as a rogue and a vagabond.

The summons list comprised 41 cases; but, either through the absence of the parties, or through private arrangement, scarcely one-fourth of that number was adjudicated upon. Only one was of any interest.

Thomas Hanratty, of the Great Britain public-house, Kent-street, licensed victualler, was summoned to answer an information laid against him for having abandoned and licensed his house as his usual place of abode. Defendant not appearing, service of summons was proved, and he was summoned to appear as defendant. The offence was proved by Inspector Garvin. Mr. Edward Armstrong deposed that some five or six weeks since he invested his all in the purchase of Hanratty's lease, license, stock in trade, &c., which he assured him was all right, that he would be sure of his license, and might proceed to carry on business, for the sake of preventing speculations he would now lay aside and again every day look in until the license was issued.

A note of thanks was then accorded to the Sheriff, on the motion of Mr. Parkes, seconded by Mr. Kemp, and the meeting separated.

committed to take his trial at the Quarter Sessions, for having embezzled 2s., the property of his employer.

James Carroll was committed to take his trial, [the circumstances have been already reported,] for stealing a horse, saddle, and bridle, the property of Mr. George Smith.

ADJOURNED LICENSING MEETING.

MONDAY.

PRESENT.—Mr. Allen (Chairman), Mr. Plunkett, Mr. Hill, Mr. Peck, Mr. Josephson, Mr. Ross, Captain Wingate, Mr. Alexander, Mr. Thornton, Mr. T. C. Major Lockyer, Mr. T. W. Campbell, and Captain Morrissey.

The Chairman read a letter from Mr. Hawksley, denying the correctness of the statement reported as made by him (Mr. Allen), as to the number of the applications to which his signature was appended, certifying to the character of the applicants and the conveniences of his house; that in the majority of instances in which he had signed he had known the individuals for years; depreciating as unwarranted the remarks made on the occasion, and asserting his right to sign for every applicant who was acquainted with him, and only that part of the list which had then come before the justices, and not to reference to the entire list, of which he was in ignorance of what names might subsequently appear; and the observation was but a casual one to the justices, not with a view to injuring any applicant, nor even expecting that it would appear in print. When he did say, however, he had a perfect right to say, in what he might.

The Clerk then read a letter dated from Canterbury, in which the writer expresses his hope that the justices would see the propriety of discontinuing all, or at least two of the three, public houses which now plague that village.

The justices then proceeded with the list, commencing from the beginning, with those names which were not in the list when first called—as far as No. 284; and, then, on No. 285, Mr. Hill, the session adjourned, it being close on twelve o'clock, for the purpose of attending the nomination of a member for the constituency, until ten o'clock on Wednesday.

No. 239, James McCrea, Birwick Castle, Palmerston, was refused, the house not being habitual.

A petition was handed up by Mr. Nichols from the widow of George Bolton, for the insertion of her name for that of her deceased husband; also a petition from Mr. Alfred Lee, of the Albany Hotel, Lower George-street, stating that he had been a publican upwards of twenty-five years, that he provided for a day behind hand in lodging his application, and praying that their worship would under the circumstances recommend him to His Excellency the Governor-General for a special license. Both were ordered to stand over for consideration after the other applications should have been disposed of.

THE CITY ELECTION.

THE polling for a fit and proper member to represent the city took place yesterday, the candidate being, as is well known, Charles Kemp, Esq., and Henry Smith, Esq.

The contest commenced with great spirit, at nine o'clock, but throughout the day the activity and zeal of Mr. Parkes' friends, who were numerous, was very great.

Timothy Kelly was charged with larceny.

Constable McNamee deposed that about mid-day on Saturday he took prisoner into custody on the Racecourse, in consequence of information that he had stolen a bundle containing wearing apparel, which was then in his possession. Miss Moore deposed that she saw the prisoner and a female on the Racecourse, and as she passed, she heard them cavilling about a bundle the prisoner had, while the woman, who was drunk, charged him with stealing from her; she met a constable, and told him what she had seen and heard. Miss Wilson, a married woman, her husband being at the diggings, deposed that the bundle produced contained wearing apparel belonging to herself; she did not know the prisoner, nor how he got possession of the bundle; valued it at three shillings; she was intoxicated on Saturday, and on coming to herself found that she was in custody. The prisoner was summoned, and kept to hard labour for one month; and the prosecutor had to pay the usual 20s. penalty for drunkenness.

The result of the election had been previously announced to the electors present by Mr. Flood; and the Sheriff, according to notice, declared the rough statements of the poll in the different Wards, as far as he had collected them from the returns handed in to him, to be as follows:—

KEMP.	PARKES.
Bourke Ward..... 144	149
Macquarie Ward..... 130	186
Cook..... 105	313
Phillip Ward..... 103	360
Brisbane Ward..... 103	220
Gipps Ward..... 97	257
Total..... 778	1425

Showing a majority in favour of Mr. Parkes of 647. (Immense cheering.)

No accommodation being provided for reporters on the hustings, it is impossible to furnish any correct account of the proceedings, but we append such an account of the speeches as memory and a few chance notes supply.

Mr. PARKES came forward, and was received with great applause.

If hitherto he had loved this city well, he loved it now even better, for the great and high principles its people had had day enforced. He believed that the contest which had now been determined was conclusive to that unconstitutional measure which had been sought to be imposed on them.

The result of the election had, he believed, set the seal of popular condemnation on that fatal measure, and this election would tell the Parliament of England, and the people of England, in far plainer language than speeches could do, what were the feelings of the people of Sydney respecting it.

When he came forward he knew full well that they, the citizens of Sydney, would never tolerate the principles contained in that measure.

The result of the present contest had, he believed, set the seal of popular condemnation on that fatal measure, and this election would tell the Parliament of England, and the people of England, in far plainer language than speeches could do, what were the feelings of the people of Sydney respecting it.

When he came forward he knew full well that they, the citizens of Sydney, would never tolerate the principles contained in that measure.

The result of the present contest had, he believed, set the seal of popular condemnation on that fatal measure, and this election would tell the Parliament of England, and the people of England, in far plainer language than speeches could do, what were the feelings of the people of Sydney respecting it.

When he came forward he knew full well that they, the citizens of Sydney, would never tolerate the principles contained in that measure.

The result of the present contest had, he believed, set the seal of popular condemnation on that fatal measure, and this election would tell the Parliament of England, and the people of England, in far plainer language than speeches could do, what were the feelings of the people of Sydney respecting it.

When he came forward he knew full well that they, the citizens of Sydney, would never tolerate the principles contained in that measure.

The result of the present contest had, he believed, set the seal of popular condemnation on that fatal measure, and this election would tell the Parliament of England, and the people of England, in far plainer language than speeches could do, what were the feelings of the people of Sydney respecting it.

When he came forward he knew full well that they, the citizens of Sydney, would never tolerate the principles contained in that measure.

The result of the present contest had, he believed, set the seal of popular condemnation on that fatal measure, and this election would tell the Parliament of England, and the people of England, in far plainer language than speeches could do, what were the feelings of the people of Sydney respecting it.

When he came forward he knew full well that they, the citizens of Sydney, would never tolerate the principles contained in that measure.

The result of the present contest had, he believed, set the seal of popular condemnation on that fatal measure, and this election would tell the Parliament of England, and the people of England, in far plainer language than speeches could do, what were the feelings of the people of Sydney respecting it.

When he came forward he knew full well that they, the citizens of Sydney, would never tolerate the principles contained in that measure.

The result of the present contest had, he believed, set the seal of popular condemnation on that fatal measure, and this election would tell the Parliament of England, and the people of England, in far plainer language than speeches could do, what were the feelings of the people of Sydney respecting it.

When he came forward he knew full well that they, the citizens of Sydney, would never tolerate the principles contained in that measure.

The result of the present contest had, he believed, set the seal of popular condemnation on that fatal measure, and this election would tell the Parliament of England, and the people of England, in far plainer language than speeches could do, what were the feelings of the people of Sydney respecting it.

When he came forward he knew full well that they, the citizens of Sydney, would never tolerate the principles contained in that measure.

The result of the present contest had, he believed, set the seal of popular condemnation on that fatal measure, and this election would tell the Parliament of England, and the people of England, in far plainer language than speeches could do, what were the feelings of the people of Sydney respecting it.

When he came forward he knew full well that they, the citizens of Sydney, would never tolerate the principles contained in that measure.

The result of the present contest had, he believed, set the seal of popular condemnation on that fatal measure, and this election would tell the Parliament of England, and the people of England, in far plainer language than speeches could do, what were the feelings of the people of Sydney respecting it.

When he came forward he knew full well that they, the citizens of Sydney, would never tolerate the principles contained in that measure.

The result of the present contest had, he believed, set the seal of popular condemnation on that fatal measure, and this election would tell the Parliament of England, and the people of England, in far plainer language than speeches could do, what were the feelings of the people of Sydney respecting it.

When he came forward he knew full well that they, the citizens of Sydney, would never tolerate the principles contained in that measure.

The result of the present contest had, he believed, set the seal of popular condemnation on that fatal measure, and this election would tell the Parliament of England, and the people of England, in far plainer language than speeches could do, what were the feelings of the people of Sydney respecting it.

When he came forward he knew full well that they, the citizens of Sydney, would never tolerate the principles contained in that measure.

The result of the present contest had, he believed, set the seal of popular condemnation on that fatal measure, and this election would tell the Parliament of England, and the people of England, in far plainer language than speeches could do, what were the feelings of the people of Sydney respecting it.

When he came forward he knew full well that they, the citizens of Sydney, would never tolerate the principles contained in that measure.

The result of the present contest had, he believed, set the seal of popular condemnation on that fatal measure, and this election would tell the Parliament of England, and the people of England, in far plainer language than speeches could do, what were the feelings of the people of Sydney respecting it.

When he came forward he knew full well that they, the citizens of Sydney, would never tolerate the principles contained in that measure.

The result of the present contest had, he believed, set the seal of popular condemnation on that fatal measure, and this election would tell the Parliament of England, and the people of England, in far plainer language than speeches could do, what were the feelings of the people of Sydney respecting it.

When he came forward he knew full well that they, the citizens of Sydney, would never tolerate the principles contained in that measure.

The result of the present contest had, he believed, set the seal of popular condemnation on that fatal measure, and this election would tell the Parliament of England, and the people of England, in far plainer language than speeches could do, what were the feelings of the people of Sydney respecting it.

When he came forward he knew full well that they, the citizens of Sydney, would never tolerate the principles contained in that measure.

The result of the present contest had, he believed, set the seal of popular condemnation on that fatal measure, and this election would tell the Parliament of England, and the people of England, in far plainer language than speeches could do, what were the feelings of the people of Sydney respecting it.

When he came forward he knew full well that they, the citizens of Sydney, would never tolerate the principles contained in that measure.

The result of the present contest had, he believed, set the seal of popular condemnation on that fatal measure, and this election would tell the Parliament of England, and the people of England, in far plainer language than speeches could do, what were the feelings of the people of Sydney respecting it.

When he came forward he knew full well that they, the citizens of Sydney, would never tolerate the principles contained in that measure.

The result of the present contest had, he believed, set the seal of popular condemnation on that fatal measure, and this election would tell the Parliament of England, and the people of England, in far plainer language than speeches could do, what were the feelings of the people of Sydney respecting it.

When he came forward he knew full well that they, the citizens of Sydney, would never tolerate the principles contained in that measure.

The result of the present contest had, he believed, set the seal of popular condemnation on that fatal measure, and this election would tell the Parliament of England, and the people of England, in far plainer language than speeches could do, what were the feelings of the people of Sydney respecting it.

When he came forward he knew full well that they, the citizens of Sydney, would never tolerate the principles contained in that measure.

The result of the present contest had, he believed, set the seal of popular condemnation on that fatal measure, and this election would tell the Parliament of England, and the people of England,

SALES BY AUCTION.

Valuable Property in the town of Taree—By Order of the Mortgagors.

M. R. HENRY G. DUFFY has been favoured with instructions to sell by public auction, on TUESDAY, May 1st, at 11 o'clock, in front of his Stores, Royal-street, Taree, all that describes in Dalton-street, Taree, late the residence of Mr. Patrick Keys, consisting of land, dwelling houses, stables, out-houses, and several yards of garden ground, and suitable for a general store or public house. A very small outlay would suffice for the purchaser's handsome return for his capital invested.

TERMS OF SALE.

Bad Bank Frank Deane.

Just landed, ex Moore's Wharf.

JOHN G. COHEN will sell by auction, on May 1st at Moore's Wharf, THIS DAY, Wednesday, May 3, at 11 o'clock.

500 Baltic planks and deals.

18 feet 11 x 3

18 ditto ditto

12 ditto ditto

12

